SILENT MISSIONS
by Gen. Vernon Walters

General Walters is a man who has been at the center of world events for the last 30 years. Five presidents have used his talents: Truman, Eisenhower, Johnson, Nixon and Ford. Just a few of the historical and political events he witnessed and participated in at the highest levels include: the U-2 affair in Paris, the Paris Peace Talks, the Nixons' ill-fated South American tour, a private conference with de Gaulle about the French atomic "force de frappe". He served as interpreter, negotiator, military attache, troubleshooter, secret envoy and Presidential companion. He worked with and knew well such men as Kissinger, Kennedy, Krushchev, Breznev and Tito. His superbly told memoirs give us a unique and fascinating look at the world figures and events which shaped our time. $12.95
